

Call for involvement

Climate change adaptation information sharing forum

22 September 2009, Canberra

A multi-organisation showcase of experiences, tools, projects and courses from practitioners, policy makers, researchers and educators

Opening Address by The Hon Greg Combet AM MP, Parliamentary Secretary for Climate Change

Keynote Address by The Hon Simon Corbell MP, Minister for the Environment, Climate Change and Water

Forum aim

The aim of the forum is to share information on how organisations, communities and regions are adapting to climate change. Participants will learn of experiences and developments underway across many sectors. It will enable you to identify relevant information and players which you need to build better networks and partnerships.

The forum will not address the causes of climate change, projections of changes, or ways to mitigate climate change.

All presenters and participants are encouraged to bring papers and promotional material for distribution. A table will be available for you to leave information for the other participants.

Opportunities to be involved

1. Call for presenters

Presentations are currently being sought. Potential presenters are requested to email admin@securityresearch.org.au the title of their proposed address by 30 June, and a few dot points to explain the topic. No abstract is required. You will be notified within a few days of submission if your presentation has been accepted. All presenters are required to pay $100 which covers the cost of the venue and catering.

Topics for presentations for 15 minutes (including questions) are sought on:

- Projects
- Research
- Learnings
- Theory
- Case studies
- Technologies

Presenters are sought from:

- Industry
- Federal, State and Territory government agencies
- Local government
- Industry associations
- Research community
- Education community
